STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
O'er whose folds so proudly in full war array
Our throats sang, our breasts to freemen and free and the home of the brave.

AMERICA

My country 'tis of thee, Sweet Land of Liberty;
Of thee I sing.
Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side, let freedom ring.
My native country thee, Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love.
I love thy rocks and rills, Thy woods and templed hills.
My heart with rapture thrills, like that above.

SALUTE TO THE FLAG

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands—one Nation indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

Presented by Mrs. Fred Manson

ON THE BANKS OF THE WABASH

Oh, the moonlight's fair tonight along the Wabash
From the fields there comes a breath of new mown hay—
Thro' the sycamores the candle lights are gleaming,
On the banks of the Wabash, far away.
